FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
MARCH 29, 2020

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND TAXATION ADDRESSES POTENTIAL PHISHING SCAM

Barrigada, Guam – The Department of Revenue and Taxation announced today that there are messages circulating on social media advising of a phishing scam to obtain bank account information to deposit the 2020 Recovery Rebate which was approved by the Coronavirus Recovery Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (“CARES Act”) which was signed in to law by President Trump.

The IRS does not contact taxpayers by e-mail, text messages or social media channels to request personal or financial information. DO NOT provide your PIN numbers, passwords, access information for credit cards, bank accounts or other financial information to anyone.

If you receive any suspicious IRS-related e-mails or messages, forward them to phishing@irs.gov.
